

the bounds of said town, which, in their opinion, public convenience may require ; and to regulate and control all manufacturers of offensive fertilizers or other commodities within the town limits. They shall also have power to provide for the codification of all ordinances which may have been or may hereafter be passed. And for the purpose of carrying out the foregoing powers, and for the preservation of the cleanliness, health, peace and good order of the community, and for the protection of the lives and property of the citizens, and to suppress, abate or discontinue, or cause to be suppressed, abated or discontinued, all nuisances within the corporate and sanitary limits of said town; they may pass all ordinances or by-laws from time to time necessary, and they may affix thereto such reasonable fines and costs, not exceeding twenty dollars in any case, as may to them appear right, and in default of the payment of any fine and cost imposed, they may provide for the imprisonment of the offender for a period not exceeding thirty days, or until the fine be paid, or sentence said offender to hard labor for a sufficient length of time until said labor will satisfy the fine and costs.

Codify ordinances.

Fines and costs.

SEC. 308. The burgess and commissioners shall have power to compel all turnpike companies whose roads, or any part thereof, lie within the limits of the town to perform all the duties and obligations imposed upon them by their respective charters, or by the laws of the State of Maryland, upon such parts thereof as are within the limits of the town ; and shall have power to enter into arrangements with the said turnpike companies in relation to the grading, paving and repairing of the parts of their respective roads lying within the corporate limits of the town.

Turnpike companies.

SEC. 309. The turnpike company, or companies, owning roads running into the town may cede to the town such parts of their roads as lie within the limits of the town, upon such terms as may be agreed upon between the burgess and commissioners and said turnpike company or companies, and the same when ceded shall in all respects be subject to the same regulations as the public streets of the town.

May cede.
