

27A. Upon all agreed statements of facts, all special cases stated, and all special verdicts, the court shall be at liberty to draw all inferences of facts or law that court or jury could have drawn from the facts so agreed or stated as if the same had been offered in evidence upon a trial before the court or before the court and a jury. May draw inferences.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage. Effective.

Approved April 5, 1888.

Chapter 318.

AN ACT to refund to Sarah A. Laughlin, widow of the late John S. Laughlin and late register of wills of Garrett county, the sum of thirty dollars for money paid by him into the state treasury for his commission as such register in the month of November, eighteen hundred and eighty-five.

WHEREAS at the November election held in the year eighteen hundred and eighty-five, the said John S. Laughlin was duly elected the register of wills of Garrett county, and immediately thereafter he was compelled to pay into the state treasury the sum of thirty dollars, as required by law before he could be commissioned as such officer; and whereas the said John S. Laughlin departed this life on or about the tenth of March, eighteen hundred and eighty-six, and before he could receive any of the emoluments of said office, except for the short space of three months; and whereas the said decedent left a widow and several small children in almost indigent circumstances, and it seems but just that said sum of money should be refunded to said widow; therefore, Preamble.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the treasurer be and is hereby directed and required, upon the warrant of the comptroller, to pay to Sarah A. Directed to pay.
