

perpetual succession, and shall be capable to sue and be sued, to make and use a common seal, to make by-laws, not inconsistent with law, for the management of its property and the regulation of its affairs, and generally to do and execute all acts, matters and things as a corporation may and can lawfully execute, and all such matters and things as may be necessary to carry out the object of said corporation.

Objects.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the objects of said corporation shall be to obtain and disseminate information upon industrial education, and to stimulate public opinion in its favor; to invite co-operation between existing organizations engaged in any form of industrial training; to promote the training of both sexes in such industries as shall enable those trained to become self-supporting; to study and devise methods and systems of industrial training, and secure their introduction into schools; also, when expedient, to form special classes and schools for such instruction, and to provide instructions for schools and classes, and if necessary to train teachers for this work.

Management.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the affairs of said corporation shall be managed by a board of sixteen managers, who shall be elected annually by the members of said corporation, and the persons named in the first section shall be the managers until their successors are elected.

Effective.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 4, 1888.

Chapter 332.

AN ACT to regulate fishing in the Patuxent river with traps and purse seines.

Unlawful.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall not be lawful for any person or persons to catch or take fish in the Patuxent river, or its tributaries, with purse seines except for food purposes.