

succession, sue and be sued, and have and use a common seal.

2. The limits of said town shall begin at the southeast corner of the fair grounds of the agricultural society of Montgomery county, and run thence with the dividing line between said fair grounds and the lands of the heirs of the late Lawrence A. Dawson to the southwest corner of said fair grounds; thence by a straight line to the south-east corner of the lands of E. B. Prettyman, where said lands corner with the lands of Dr. E. E. Stonestreet and Robert W. Carter; thence with the dividing line between the lands of Robert W. Carter and E. B. Prettyman to a point where the lands of Robert W. Carter, E. B. Prettyman and Mrs. S. D. Higgins corner, being the southwest corner of the lands of E. B. Prettyman; thence by a straight line to the corner of the lands of Mrs. Rebecca T. Viers and Miss Henrietta Dunlop on the west side of the road from Rockville to the Great Falls of the Potomac; thence westwardly with the dividing line between the lands of said Mrs. Viers and Miss Dunlop to a point opposite the southwest corner of the lands of Charles G. Willson; thence to the southwest corner of the lands of said Charles G. Willson; thence with the dividing line between the lands of the said Charles G. Willson and the lands of John P. Mullinger in a northerly direction to the Darnestown road; thence in a straight line to the northwest corner of the old dwelling-house on the farm belonging to the trustees of the Rockville academy, commonly known as the West farm; thence by a straight line to the gate on the lane leading to the dwelling-house on the farm of Hon. John T. Vinson; thence with the south side of the lane commonly known as Martin's lane, to the Frederick road; thence by a straight line to a culvert on the Metropolitan Branch of the Baltimore and Ohio rail road on the lands of the Misses England; thence by a straight line to the northeast corner of the lands of William Reading, on the lane commonly known as Horner's lane; thence down and with the west side of Horner's lane to the Baltimore road; thence down and with the north