

justice of the peace, in case of non-payment thereof, as soon as adjudged as aforesaid, in addition to process of attachment or execution for the enforcement thereof, shall have power forthwith to commit the offender or offenders to the county jail until the payment of said fine, penalty or forfeiture so as aforesaid adjudged against him or them, together with all costs, unless sooner released and discharged by the order of said commissioners.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall Effective. take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 4, 1888.

Chapter 369.

AN ACT to repeal chapter two hundred and eleven of the acts of the General Assembly of Maryland passed at the January session, eighteen hundred and sixty-eight, in relation to the sale of burial grounds, and to re-enact the same amended.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That chapter two hundred and eleven of the acts of the General Assembly of Maryland passed at the January session, eighteen hundred and sixty-eight, entitled "An act to add additional sections to article sixteen of the Code of Public General Laws," entitled "Chancery," to come in after section seventy-eight of said article, be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted, amended as follows: Repealed and re-enacted.

SEC. 79. That in any case in which a burial ground has ceased to be used for burial purposes, and the said ground has been dedicated and used for burial purposes, and lots have been sold therein, and deeds executed or certificates issued to purchasers thereof, and it shall be considered desirable to dispose of said burial ground for other purposes, upon a bill being filed in any of the circuit courts of the state, in equity, in the May order sale.