

circuit court of said county, shall pay a fine of not less than fifty nor more than two hundred dollars, in the discretion of said justice or court; and, in default of payment such fine, shall be forthwith committed to the county jail for the period of sixty days; and from the judgment of said justice there shall be the right of appeal to the circuit court of the county where said justice resides, provided said appeal shall be taken within ten days from the date of the rendition thereof; but execution thereon shall not be stayed unless the party appealing shall give the usual appeal bond to the State of Maryland, in double the fine imposed and costs, with two sureties to be approved by said justice.

Concurrent jurisdiction.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, &c., That the justices of the peace of Cecil, Harford and Baltimore counties, and the circuit courts for each of said counties, shall have concurrent jurisdiction in all cases that may arise under the provisions of this act when the violation of such provisions take place on the bay aforesaid; and when such violation takes place on any waters or streams forming the boundary between any of said counties, the justices of the peace of either of said counties bounding on said waters or stream and the circuit court of either of said counties shall have concurrent jurisdiction, and any person or persons arrested for the violation of any of the provisions of this act may be taken to either of said counties upon whose justices of the peace or circuit court jurisdiction is conferred by the section for commitment and trial, and from judgment of the justice of the peace mentioned in this section appeals may be taken on the terms mentioned in the next preceding section of this act.

Constituted
officers.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, &c., That the board of special police biennially appointed by the Governor of the State, and charged with enforcement of the laws relating to wild waterfowl, be and they are hereby constituted officers of this state, and charged with the enforcement of the provisions of this act so far as the same extend to the waters of said bay and its tributaries in Cecil and Harford counties northward of the line mentioned in the first section of this