

shall commence on the third Wednesday in the November of the year of his election, and continue for two years and until his successor shall qualify; and the term of office of the present incumbent of the mayoralty of the city of Baltimore shall continue until the qualification of the mayor to be elected on the Tuesday next after the first Monday in November, eighteen hundred and eighty-nine.

Changed.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That in pursuance of the power contained in section nine of article eleven of the Constitution of Maryland, that section three of said article eleven of the constitution be and the same is hereby so changed that hereafter an election for members of the first branch of the city council of Baltimore shall be held on Tuesday next after the first Monday in November in every year, and for members of the second branch of said council on the Tuesday next after the first Monday in November in every second year.

Election for city council.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That the next election for members of the first branch of the city council of Baltimore shall be held on the Tuesday next after the first Monday in November, eighteen hundred and eighty-eight, and an election for members of said first branch shall be held on the same day in every year thereafter; and the next election for members of the second branch of the city council of Baltimore shall be held on the Tuesday next after the first Monday in November, eighteen hundred and eighty-nine, and an election for members of said second branch shall be held on the same day in every second year thereafter.

Time of meeting.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That hereafter the city council of Baltimore shall meet on the second Monday in November in each year instead of on the first Monday in November in each year, as now provided by law.

Approved April 5, 1888.