

Repealed and re-enacted.

fifty of the acts of eighteen hundred and eighty-two, entitled "An act to enable the qualified voters of Howard county to determine, by ballot, whether spirituous, fermented or intoxicating liquors or alcoholic bitters, shall be sold in said county, be and the same is hereby repealed as far as said act applies to the second election district in said county, and re-enacted and amended so as to read as follows :

Submitted to the voters.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the question whether or not any person or persons, house, corporation, company or association may be permitted to sell any spirituous, fermented or intoxicating liquors of any origin whatever, or alcoholic bitters, at any time within the limits of the second election district of Howard county, in this state, shall be submitted to the registered and qualified voters of the said election district of said county at an election to be held on the sixth day of November, in the year eighteen hundred and eighty-eight, and which election shall be held in accordance with and subject to the law governing general elections in this state; and the sheriff of said county shall give notice of the time and purpose of said election, by advertising in at least two of the newspapers published in said county, at least ten days before the said election.

Give notice.

Duties of judges.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the ballots for and against such sale shall have written or printed upon them "For the sale of intoxicating liquors," or "Against the sale of intoxicating liquors," and the ballots so cast shall be deposited in ballot-boxes to be provided for that purpose, and be carefully counted by the judges of said election; and said judges shall make returns of said votes to the clerk of the circuit court of Howard county, and said clerk shall immediately make proclamation of the results of said election.

Majority vote.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That if a majority of the votes cast in said district be "For the sale of intoxicating liquors," then licenses may be issued, and liquors may be sold in said district; as provided by the general laws of this state, but if a majority of the votes cast be "Against the sale of intoxicating liquors," then no liquors.