

Power grant'd SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the said corporation shall have power to receive, sue for and recover any gift, devise or legacy given, granted or devised unto it, and to have and hold the same, together with the right to hold by lease, grant or devise any real, personal estate or property according to the laws and constitution of the state, with full power to lease, sell, grant and dispose of the same, and to do all other acts and things that may be devised expedient for the government of the interest and the regulations of the business of the said incorporation.

Effective. SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 5, 1888.

Chapter 415.

AN ACT to add additional sections to article thirty of the Code of Public General Laws, title "Crimes and Punishments," and to prevent fraudulent sales of any variety of new or novel seeds or agricultural products.

Must file statement. SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall not be lawful for any person or persons, company or firm, or any agent of any person or persons, company or firm, to sell or offer for sale or traffic in the State of Maryland any variety of new or novel seed, such as wheat, oats, corn, rye, clover seed, grass seeds or other agricultural products, or any variety of the same, claiming or representing the same to be new, novel or excelling in quality or productiveness the ordinary seeds or agriculture products in general cultivation without first filing with the clerk of the circuit court for the county in which such sale or sales, or traffic of such seed or any of them, or other agricultural products is proposed to be made, a written statement of the kind of seed or agricultural product offered for sale or traffic, with a full description of the same and the advantages claimed for the same over