

all meetings of the members of the company so long as such insurance remains in force.

3. Any member of said company may withdraw therefrom at any time when he is not in arrears for interest on his premium note or notes, assessments or fees, nor liable for his proportion of any loss which has occurred but has not been adjusted and assessed, by application in writing, to be filed with the secretary of the company, and the surrender of his or her policy or policies, and the payment of one and one-fifth per cent. of the amount of his or her premium note or notes, and such cancellation fee to the secretary as may be prescribed by the by-laws of the company, when it shall be the duty of the secretary of the company to preserve the said application and surrender policy or policies endorsed by him, and the member surrendering the same as cancelled, or if the policy be lost, the withdrawing member shall sign the cancellation thereof on the books of the company, and in either case, the secretary shall make a record thereof, on the account with the policy, on the books of the company, and, pay to the member so withdrawing any balance standing to his or her credit on such surrendered policy or policies, and any previous dividends thereon remaining unpaid, and surrender to the member so withdrawing the premium note or notes held by the company for the premium on such cancelled policy or policies, or if judgments have been entered therefor, then to give to the withdrawing member an order directing such judgment to be entered satisfied.

6. It shall be the duty of the president or secretary of the company annually to give at least twenty' days notice by advertisement in some newspaper published in Kent county—or if there be no such newspaper, then by notice posted at such public places as he may deem proper—of the annual meeting of the members of the company, to be held on the first Monday in May in each year, for the election of twelve directors of the company, who shall be members of the company, and for the transaction of such other business as may be properly brought before the meeting ; but in case such election shall from Member may withdraw.

To sign cancellation.

Give notice of annual meeting.