

said county commanding them to summon as jurors to attend at the next ensuing jury term of said court the several persons whose names shall be drawn as aforesaid; and if any such persons are dead or sick, or otherwise unable to attend, or returned non est by the sheriff, it shall be the duty of the sheriff to immediately return the fact to said judges, who shall thereupon cause to be drawn from said box, in the manner directed, other names in the place or stead of the original who may be dead, disabled or absent, and shall have the name or names of such person or persons so last aforesaid drawn to be inserted in the said venire facias to be summoned as aforesaid, and it shall be the duty of the said sheriff to summon the person named to make return thereof to said court at the opening of its session.

Sheriff to summon.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That the said judges shall have the same power to compel attendance of jurors, and shall proceed in all other matters not provided for in the preceding sections, as under the general law relating to jurors.

Compel attendance.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Effective.

Approved April 5, 1888.

Chapter 433.

AN ACT to repeal section nine of article seven of Maryland, title "Oysters," as amended by the act of eighteen hundred and eighty-six, and to enact the same with amendments.

SECTION I. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That section nine of article seven of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, title "Oysters," as amended by the act of eighteen hundred and eighty-six, chapter two hundred and ninety-six, be and the same is Repealed and re-enacted.