

defendant shall have the same legal effect and operation, and execution thereon shall be enforced and have like effect as if the judgment or decree had been recovered against all the general partners; provided that no such judgment shall operate as a lien upon the real estate or chattels real of any general partner not named as a defendant in said case to the prejudice of any bona fide purchaser without notice.

(21). No dissolution of such partnership by the acts of the partners shall take place previous to the time specified in the certificate of its formation, or in the certificate of its renewal, unless by death of one of the partners or insolvency of the partnership, except as provided in section ten, or until a notice of such dissolution shall have been filed and recorded in the clerk's office in which the original certificate was recorded, and published once a week for four weeks in a newspaper printed in each of the counties or city where the partnership may have places of business, or by notice set up at some public place in each election district in the cases provided for in section seven of this article; which publication may be proved by affidavit, and recorded as hereinbefore prescribed for the publication of the certificate for the formation of such partnership.

Cannot dissolve, etc.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Effective.

Approved April 5, 1888.

Chapter 513.

AN ACT for the better protection and regulation of those employed on vessels engaged in catching oysters in the waters of this state in boats of ten tons or over.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That no boat or vessel, belonging to a resident or residents of this state, of ten tons or over shall engage in catching oysters in Unlawful.