

ing to the treasurer's office shall be the property and records of Garrett county, and at all times shall be subject to the examination of county commissioners thereof. All books, documents and papers, goods and chattels, accounts and credits, money and deposits belonging to the treasurer's office, or in his custody as treasurer, shall be delivered up and transferred by him to his successor in office, when such successor is duly appointed and qualified, provided that the tax levy or levies placed in his hands for his collection, or so much thereof as may be uncollected or unaccounted for by him, and for which his bond is responsible, shall not be delivered or assigned over to his successor in office by such treasurer except as hereinafter provided; but his rights, powers and duties as to collecting and reporting the same shall continue, and he shall collect and pay over the same as collected to his successor, in the manner and within the period hereinafter prescribed.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That the said treasurer shall at the close of each week deposit in a bank, to be designated by the comptroller of the treasury of Maryland, all state taxes and money due the state which may have come into his hands during the week, to the credit of the comptroller of the state treasury and shall receive therefor from said bank a certificate of deposit, which he shall immediately forward to the comptroller, showing the amount placed to his credit; and said treasurer shall in like manner deposit all money in his hands at the end of each week, received for county taxes and dues, in such bank as he may see fit, to the credit of "The County Treasurer of Garrett County," which money shall be drawn only by the treasurer making such deposit, and only for claims which may have been levied or ordered paid by the county commissioners.

Deposit weekly.

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the treasurer, as soon as the annual tax levy shall have been made, to give notice thereof in one newspaper published in said county, and by handbills posted in each district of said county, and to prepare the tax bills of each taxpayer; and on application he shall forward the

Give notice.