

and bound copies of the Public General Laws and one thousand copies of the Public Local Laws, reprinted as hereinbefore provided.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That the state librarian be and he is hereby directed to sell fifteen hundred copies of the said Public General Laws and five hundred copies of the said Public Local Laws at the price of ten dollars for each copy, and to pay the proceeds of such sales to the treasurer from time to time as the same shall be received. He shall also distribute and forward one copy of the Public General Laws and one copy of the Public Local Laws to the following named persons, viz., the governor, comptroller and treasurer; the secretary of state, the commissioner of the land office, the tax commissioner, the insurance commissioner, the adjutant general, each judge of the court of appeals and of the several circuit courts, and of the supreme bench of Baltimore city; each of the several orphans' courts in the state, the clerk of each court and each register of wills, the attorney general, the state reporter, each board of county commissioners, and the mayor of Baltimore city, the marshal of police of Baltimore city, the state librarian, the commander of the state fishery force, and to the executive department of each state and territory of the Union; also, two copies to the congressional library, to the library company of the Baltimore bar, to the library of the supreme court of the District of Columbia, and to the bar library of each of the circuit courts of this state.

Number of copies to sell.

Who to receive copies.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That if the court of appeals, upon the application to them by said John Prentis Poe, which application he is hereby required to make, shall direct that the said code shall be bound in four volumes instead of two, and that the work shall be electrotyped, the further sum of five thousand dollars be and the same is hereby appropriated out of any money in the treasury, not otherwise appropriated, to pay for such increased expense of binding and electrotyping.

Further appropriation.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That if before the next session of the general assembly