

by-laws, rules and regulations for the direction and management of said company as may in their judgment, from time to time, be necessary for the purposes of their incorporation; provided, they are not inconsistent with the constitution and laws of this state and the provisions of this charter. And the president and directors of said company, or a majority of them, shall elect such other officers of said company as may be provided for by its by-laws, and shall have power to employ all such agents and servants for the construction, repair and preservation of the railway and other property of said company, and the running of cars and transportation of passengers thereon, and for the transaction of all the business of said company as in their judgment may be necessary.

Make by-laws,
etc.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That the company hereby incorporated shall have the power to make and construct and maintain a railway, with double or single track and sidings as they may deem expedient, for the transportation of passengers in cars, propelled by horses or in any other manner than by steam, in and over the streets of the city of Hagerstown, in this state; provided, however, that it shall first obtain the right to use said streets from the mayor and city council of said city.

May construct,
etc.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That said company shall not charge more than five (5) cents fare for the conveyance of each passenger over fourteen (14) years of age, and not more than three (3) cents for each child between the ages of four (4) and fourteen (14) years, from any point on any line of its railway to any other point within the said city of Hagerstown.

Fare.

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That if any person or persons shall wilfully, by any means whatever, injure, impair or destroy any part of said railway, or any of the cars, works or buildings, or other property of said company, or place any obstruction on said railway by means of which any injury may be done to any of the cars or horses of said company, or to any person upon any of said cars, such person or persons shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding

Punishment
for destroying,
etc.