

tween the twenty-sixth day of December, said day included, and the first day of November next ensuing in each and every year, nor any woodcock between the first day of February and the fifteenth day of June, nor any pheasant between the first day of January and the first day of September.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That any person or persons violating any of the provisions of the preceding section of this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction thereof before any justice of the peace in said county, shall pay a fine of five dollars for each and every woodcock or rabbit shot or taken; one-half of said fine to be paid to the informer, and the remainder as hereinafter directed; and on failure to pay said fine shall be committed to the house of correction or the county jail, in the discretion of the justice trying the case, for ten days.

Fine for violating.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any person, not a bona fide resident or taxpayer of said county, to shoot any woodcock or rabbits in the said county without having first obtained from the clerk of the circuit court for said county a license permitting the person named in said license to shoot said game in said county for one year from the day on which said license is issued; and that the person named therein, or party procuring such license, shall pay to said clerk for such license the sum of ten dollars, which amount shall be turned over by the said clerk to the board of school commissioners of Baltimore county for the use of the public schools, and fifty cents to the clerk for his fee for issuing said license; and any non-resident convicted before a justice of the peace of said county, for gunning within the limits of said county without a license so to do shall be fined ten dollars for each and every offence; on failure to pay said fine, the offender shall be confined in the county jail for ten days; provided, that any land-owner may extend the privilege of killing said game upon his or her land to whomsoever he pleases during such parts of the year as the killing of such game is permiss-

Unlawful.