

ible under this law; in case of conviction for any offence under this act, one half of all fines imposed shall be paid to the informer and the other half of said fines shall be paid to the board of county school commissioners for said county for the use of the public schools in said county.

Fines—to whom paid.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That the possession by any person within the limits of said county of any of the birds or rabbits mentioned in the preceding sections of this act, at any time in which the shooting, trapping or killing of the same is prohibited by said preceding sections, shall be prima facie evidence of violations of this law.

Shall be evidence.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That the fines which may be collected by any justice of the peace of said county under the provisions of this act, and the money paid to said clerk of the circuit court for licenses under the provisions of this act, shall be paid by said justice of the peace and the clerk to the treasurer of the board of school commissioners of Baltimore county, to be by him placed to the credit of the school fund for said county.

Fines—how disposed of.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the constable and police officers of the several election districts of the said county to arrest any person or persons violating any of the provisions of this act, and take them before the nearest justice of the peace, to be dealt with as this act has hereinbefore directed.

Duty of constables, etc.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That all acts or parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act be and the same are hereby repealed.

Repealed.

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Effective.

Approved April 5, 1888.