

Taxable limits

one-quarter degrees, west one hundred and thirty-two and two-tenths perches to the west margin of said Lynch and Orendorff's addition to Frederick; then with the west margin thereof, north twenty-seven and one-half degrees, east thirty-four and two-tenths perches; then north seventy-five and three-fourths degrees, west twenty-seven and one-tenth perches to the east side of the Jefferson turnpike road; then north thirty-nine degrees, west eighty-four perches to the middle of the east end of Hezekiah Young's storehouse standing on the south side of the Frederick and Hagerstown turnpike road; then north seventy-two and three-fourths degrees, east two hundred and seven perches to the southwest corner of the German Reformed graveyard; then parallel with the west side of Bentz street, north twenty-one and one-quarter degrees, east two hundred and two twenty-eight-one-hundredths perches; and thence south eighty-one and one-fourth degrees, east fifty-nine and twenty-eight one-hundredths perches, to the first-mentioned place of beginning; and the said mayor and aldermen shall have full power and authority to assess, levy and collect within said limits, any and all taxes whatsoever which they were authorized to assess, levy and collect, within the taxable limits as existing before the passage of this act.

Effective.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 5, 1888.