Resolved further, That the comptroller of the treasury and treasurer be authorized to transfer whatever stocks and bonds remain in the sinking funds to the credit of said Deaf and Dumb Asylum loan and said Maryland Hospital loan, as follows: Fifty-seven thousand eight hundred and eighteen dollars and sixty-eight cents to the credit of the free school fund, and the balance to the credit of the defence redemption loan fund.

No. 7.

Null and void.

Be it resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That whereas the supreme court of the United States and the supreme court of the District of Columbia, have declared the license tax of the District of Columbia, exacted from non-resident traders throughout the United States, unconstitutional, null and void, that we regard the claims of the citizens of Maryland, wholesale dealers and manufacturers, who have united with others throughout the trade centers of the country, and petitioned the congress of the United States for the repeal and the refunding of the moneys exacted from such non-residents for the sale of goods therein by sample or otherwise, to be equitable, just and constitutional; and that the bill introduced for that purpose by the Honorable Isidor Rayner ought to be passed, and we ask the earnest advocacy and
