

every partridge, pheasant, woodcock or rabbit shot, or in any manner caught, killed, or found in his or their possession, or for any partridge trapped, or for any partridge eggs or nests wilfully or maliciously molested or destroyed contrary to the preceding section, one-half of said fine to be paid the informer, and the remainder as hereinafter directed, and in default of payment of said fine or fines imposed hereunder, together with costs, the offender shall be committed to jail for not less than five nor more than thirty days for each offence, and the non-payment of each and every fine shall be considered a separate offence within the meaning of the preceding sections.

Fine—how disposed of.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any person not a bona-fide resident of said county to shoot, or in any manner catch or kill any partridge, pheasant, woodcock, rabbit, or any other game whatsoever, within the limits of Howard county, without first having obtained from the clerk of the circuit court for said county a license permitting the person named in said license to shoot wild game in said county for one year from the day on which said license is issued, except as herein prohibited by sections one and two, and that the person named therein, or the person procuring such license, shall pay to said clerk for such license the sum of seven dollars and a-half, and fifty cents to the clerk for his fee for issuing such license, and any non-resident convicted before a justice of the peace of said county of gunning within the limits of the county without a license so to do, shall be fined not less than ten nor more than thirty dollars for each and every offence, one-half of which said fine shall be paid to the informer, and the remainder as hereinafter directed, and in default of payment of said fine or fines imposed hereunder, together with the cost, the offender shall be committed to jail for not less than ten nor more than thirty days for each offence; provided, however, that nothing in this bill shall interfere with right of any land owner to extend privilege of killing said game when it may be lawful to shoot the same according to this act, upon his own land,

Procure license permitting.

Fine for violation.
