

to compel tramps and vagrants convicted of violating any of such rules, regulations or ordinances, to labor upon the roads, highways or streets of said county, or the cities or towns thereof, or to labor for the improvement of the same.

Agree upon terms.

268 b. The County Commissioners shall have power to agree with the cities or towns mentioned in the preceding section, upon terms whereby the tramps or vagrants convicted of violating any municipal ordinance in case the facilities of such city or town are not adequate, may be held at the county jail or almshouse, for the purpose of performing the labor or work authorized by the preceding section and required by their respective convictions or sentences.

Tramps.

268 c. The tramps or vagrants referred to in the two preceding sections are such persons as are called tramps in section 275 of Article 27 of the Code of Public General Laws of this State.

Rules to be enforced.

268 d. The Circuit Court and the several justices of the peace of said county shall have jurisdiction to enforce the several rules, regulations or ordinances, made or passed under the power given in this sub-title, and upon conviction for violating the same, to pass such sentences as may be right.

Effective.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 7, 1898.

CHAPTER. 392.

AN ACT to appropriate a sum of money to pay the claim of William J. C. Dulany Company for stationery furnished the State Library, Court of Appeals and Legislative Department of the State of Maryland, from February 1, 1898, to March 23, 1898, inclusive.

Appropriation.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Comptroller be and he is hereby directed to draw his warrant upon the Treasurer in favor of William J. C. Dulany Company for the sum of eleven hundred and seventy-nine and forty-three one-hundredth dollars, ($1,179.43) for stationery furnished the State Library, Court of Appeals and Legislative Department of the State of Maryland, from February 1, 1898, to March 23, 1898, inclusive.

Effective.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 7, 1898.