

ing their election, and as often thereafter as may be necessary, in the discharge of the duties of their office, not less, however, than once every month. A majority of the council shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Meetings of council.

SEC. 6. They shall annually, on or before the first Monday in April, appoint three judges of election, who shall appoint a clerk, and the said judges shall conduct an election by ballot, in accordance with the provisions of section 3 of this Act; the polls to be opened at one o'clock P. M. and close at six o'clock P. M.; the judges and clerk shall make their return to the council, but said judges and clerk shall receive no compensation for their services. Not more than two of said judges of election shall be of the same political party.

Appoint
three judges
of election.

SEC. 7. The Mayor shall appoint one person to be town marshal, one to be health officer, one to be clerk and treasurer, to hold office until their successors are elected and qualified, and the council shall fix the compensation of each of said officers and all subordinates under them, and shall prescribe their duties except as herein provided. The town marshal shall have power to appoint, with the approval of the Mayor, such deputy marshal or marshals as the council may allow, and shall be held responsible under the Mayor for the enforcement of all ordinances of the town relating to public safety and order, and shall perform such other duties as the council may prescribe. The health officer shall have power to appoint, with the approval of the Mayor, such assistants and officers under him as the council may allow, and shall be held responsible under the Mayor for the enforcement of all ordinances of the town relating to the public health and sanitary condition of the town. The clerk shall keep the minutes of the proceedings of the council in a well bound book, which shall be open to the inspection of all persons interested therein. He shall collect and receive the taxes and other moneys due the town and shall keep and disburse the same in the manner prescribed by the council, and shall perform such other duties as the council shall prescribe. The council may allow the town marshal and deputy marshal, its health officer, his assistants and the clerk such compensation as they may deem proper.

Officers
appointed.

SEC. 8. The Mayor shall have all the powers of a justice of the peace in criminal cases where the Town of Garrett Park is a party, and shall receive the same fees allowed justices of the peace in similar cases; and an appeal from his judgment, when the demand or fine exceeds five dollars, may be taken to the Circuit Court for the county, which shall hear and determine the matter as upon appeal from justices of the peace.

Mayor shall have power
of a justice
of the peace