

21. Whenever the Council shall levy a tax, they shall cause to be made out an alphabetical list of all the persons to be charged therewith, and shall cause to be affixed thereto the respective sums to be collected from each person, and a warrant to the bailiff to collect the same.

Alphabetical list made out.

22. The bailiff appointed by the Council shall enforce the payment of corporation taxes in the same manner and with like effect as collectors of State and county taxes may enforce the payment of State and county taxes.

Enforce payment of taxes.

23. The bailiff shall make all collections required of him and pay the same to the clerk within thirty days from the time the same shall come into his hands, and which said clerk shall hold, together with all moneys received by him, subject to the order of the Council.

Make collections.

24. The bailiff shall attend the meetings of the Council and perform such duties as it may direct; he shall prevent disorderly meetings of persons, and he shall enforce all ordinances that may be exacted by the Council.

Attend
meetings.

25. The bailiff shall have the same fees for making distress or levying execution for taxes as are allowed county collectors, and for making any arrests, or serving process for violation of any ordinances of the corporation, the same fees as are allowed constables for similar services; and when the bailiff wilfully fails to discharge any duty of his office, he may in addition to the remedy on his bond, be fined by the Mayor in his discretion, not exceeding ten dollars for any one offense, for the payment of which said fines, his bond shall be responsible.

Fees allowed.

26. The police justice of the peace of election district number twelve in Frederick county who shall reside at Brunswick, or the Mayor of said town, or Mayor pro tem, in the absence, sickness or other disability of said police justice shall, for the purpose of preserving the peace of said town and for other municipal and police purposes, have full power and authority to hear, determine and pass sentence in all cases for violation of any ordinance of said town, and may impose fines for such violation, and in default of the payment of such fines and the costs of prosecution, may imprison offenders in the town lock-up or county jail, but not exceeding one day for every dollar of fine imposed and not exceeding thirty days in all; and for the purpose of carrying out the police powers herein granted, the person, before whom any case for the violation of an ordinance of said town shall be tried as aforesaid, shall have the power to issue warrants commanding the bailiff

Full power and authority given.