

of said corporation, or any under bailiff thereof, to arrest any person charged with violating any of the ordinances of said town and have the offender brought before him for trial; he shall also have power to summon witnesses and to enforce their attendance, both for the corporation and the accused, by attachment as in like cases before justices of the peace. But in all cases the person convicted of violating any ordinance of said town shall have the right of appeal to the Circuit Court for Frederick county; provided, the person appealing shall pray the appeal forthwith and shall give a good and sufficient bond, to be approved by the police justice, Mayor or other person trying the case for the payment of the fine imposed and all costs incurred in the prosecution and appeal, in case the conviction shall be sustained in the Circuit Court aforesaid. The person before whom any case for the violation of any ordinance of said town shall be tried, shall be entitled to receive the same fees as a justice of the peace would receive for similar services.

appeal.

Proceeded against.

27. If any offender shall be in default for the non-payment of any fine and costs imposed, he may be proceeded against in a civil action in the name of the Mayor and Council of Brunswick in the same manner as suits are brought to recover small debts, and if the fines and costs shall be collected or paid, the offender shall be immediately released from imprisonment, if he shall have been committed to prison, whether the term of his sentence shall have expired or not.

Hold their offices, etc.

28. The commissioners of the county, justices of the peace, sheriff, constables and all other county and State officers shall have, hold and exercise their offices and jurisdiction in said town.

Hold their offices, etc.

29. The Mayor and Councilmen and all other officers of the town in office at the date of this Act shall hold their offices until their successors are elected or appointed, as herein provided, and no longer.

Regulate
privies.

30. The Council shall have full power to regulate privies and to regulate the character of boxes or other fixtures for them, and the mode in which they shall be emptied and their contents removed, and shall prohibit the maintenance of privy sinks, cesspools or other depositions of filth within the corporate limits.

Pass ordinances

31. The Council may pass suitable ordinances for the protection of public buildings, churches, cemeteries, private buildings, shops, trees and fencing in said town, from defacement or
