32. It shall not be lawful for any person or body corporate to sell, directly or indirectly, at any place within the limits of the town of Brunswick, or to give away, at his place of business, or upon any street, alley or thoroughfare in said town, any spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer, or intoxicating drinks of any kind, nor shall any license be issued or granted for the sale of the same within the limits of said town of Brunswick. The Council shall have power to pass an ordinance or ordinances, to suppress the sale or giving away of spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer, or intoxicating drinks of any kind, within the corporate limits of said town, and may provide therein a fine and penalty, not exceeding the fine and penalty authorized by section 19 of this Act, for a violation of said ordinance or ordinances; this power shall not, however, be construed to forbid or deny the jurisdiction of the Circuit Court in the premises, as provided in the next succeeding section.
