

judgment shall be affirmed, as also costs adjudged by said justice of the peace, and also all costs awarded by the Circuit Court aforesaid; and all fines collected under the provisions of this Act shall be paid to the County Commissioners, to be by them applied for the purpose of repairing the public roads in said county, and the judges of the Circuit Court for the said county shall give this in charge to the grand jurors thereof.

Bond to be given.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That the County Commissioners shall require the road supervisors appointed by them to give bond to the State, to be approved by them, for such sums as they may deem proper, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties required of them, which said bond may be put in suit for the benefit of any person suffering by the neglect of the said supervisor in keeping the roads in his district in proper order, and the said County Commissioners shall have full power to fix on the price to be paid for laborers on said roads, and to authorize the said supervisors to hire such number of laborers as they may deem necessary, and that said County Commissioners shall pay said supervisors a salary not to exceed three hundred and fifty dollars per annum; and the said road supervisors shall give their whole and undivided attention to the supervision of and work upon the said county roads during the entire year.

Placing of finger boards or signs.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That the County Commissioners shall cause to be placed at such of the forks of the public roads as they may think need the same, finger boards or signs showing the prominent points that the said roads lead to and the distance to said points; and any person tearing down or defacing such finger boards shall, on conviction thereof before any justice of the peace in the county, be fined a sum of not less than five nor more than ten dollars.

Empowered to widen county roads.

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That the said County Commissioners for Worcester county are hereby empowered to widen said county roads to the width of forty feet and to straighten same, by cutting down and removing all trees and bushes, and by removing and setting in all fences and gates, such as may interfere with said widening or straightening of said roads, whenever in their judgment they may deem necessary; where objection is made to the said widening or straightening of said roads, the method of condemning the land in contention shall be the same as now provided by law for making roads, alleys and streets.

How construed.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be construed as rendering the County Commis-
