

office during the term of two years, unless sooner removed by the Mayor; and the said collector in collecting the said taxes shall have full power to distrain for the same in the same manner that the collectors of State and county taxes now do.

SEC. 13. And be it enacted, That whenever they think it necessary, from time to time, they may make a new assessment of the real and personal property within the town limits; and they shall have power to alter and amend the said assessment whenever they may think justice requires it. ^{Make new assessment.}

SEC. 14. And be it enacted, That the treasurer of the corporation, who may be one of the members of the City Council, shall hold his office for two years, unless sooner removed by the Mayor. He shall keep an accurate account of the receipts and disbursements of the funds of the corporation in a well bound book, and shall render annually to the Mayor and City Council a succinct and detailed statement thereof, which statement shall be posted in some public place in said town annually; but before the said treasurer shall act as such he shall give bond to the State of Maryland in such penalty as the Mayor and City Council may prescribe, with sureties to be approved by them, conditioned that he will well and faithfully account for all moneys received by him from the collector of said corporation, or any other person, for the use of said town, and will also well and faithfully pay over to the said Mayor and City Council of Ocean City, or their order, all sums of money so received by him, and deliver over the books and papers of his office whenever required so to do by them; and the said bond shall be recorded in the office of the clerk of the Circuit Court for said county; and they shall allow the treasurer such compensation for his services as they may deem reasonable and just. ^{Hold office for two years.}

SEC. 15. And be it enacted, That the Mayor and City Council of Ocean City shall have power to pass all ordinances necessary to give effect and operation to the powers vested in them, and likewise the authority to provide for the appointment and compensation of all such officers as they may deem necessary for the protection and good government of said city; and in case of any vacancy for any reason in any appointive office, said vacancy may be filled for the unexpired term by the same authority and in the same manner as the original occupant of said office was appointed. ^{Pass ordinances}

SEC. 16. And be it enacted, That all ordinances or other measures heretofore ordained and passed by the Mayor and City Council of Ocean City, or by the City Council alone, and
