as provided
in section
191.

194. The several District Boards of Road Commissioners shall in their respective election districts adopt such general rules and regulations for calling and holding meetings for the transaction of business and for other purposes as they shall deem best; and shall appoint one of their number as chairman, to hold during the pleasure of the board, and shall also designate one of their number to act as clerk, whose duty it shall be to keep full and accurate record of the proceedings of the board, and to perform such other duties as may be required of him by the board.

and regulations.

195. The said road commissioners shall each receive an annual salary of fifty dollars, except the chairmen, who shall each receive an annual salary of one hundred dollars, payable by the said County Commissioners, and shall hold office respectively for a term of two years, or until their successors respectively are appointed or selected and qualified.

Salary.

196. Each of the several Boards of District Road Commissioners hereafter to be appointed shall have power and it shall be their duty to divide their respective election districts into road districts, (not less than ten in each), properly lettered, (as Road District A, Road District B, etc.) of as compact form, size and location as practicable, and then such and every road district shall be again sub-divided in sections, properly numbered, also as compact and of as convenient location as practicable; no section shall contain more than ten nor less than three miles of record; all such divisions and sub-divisions shall not only be distinctly and clearly marked and located on the maps herein provided for by definite boundaries, but an accurately written description shall be made of each road, duly designated by some proper or apt name, giving the beginning and the termination of the boundaries of each road district and each section, the approximate number of miles in each, length of each road as classified, and such other general description as may be useful and deemed necessary; a copy when made shall be filed with the Board of County Commissioners.
