

or recovered under this Act, which said bond shall be responsible to all such persons hereinafter described as may be injured by the sale of spirituous or fermented liquors sold in violation of the provisions of this Act. Upon the receipt of said papers from any applicant as hereinbefore provided, including a good and sufficient bond, the said board shall forthwith advertise at least once in two newspapers of the county (the costs of said advertisement to be first paid to said board by the applicant) the substance of said petition, specifying particularly the place where said applicant proposes to sell; said notice shall specify a time and place when the board will hear objections to the granting of such license. At the time and place named the board shall hear any objections which may be made. If no objections are made, or if objections made are, in the opinion of the board, insufficient, and in their judgment the applicant has complied with the provisions of the law and is entitled to a license, they shall give to said applicant a certificate that he is entitled to a license, specifying the character thereof, upon the payment to the clerk of the Circuit Court for Cecil county the license fees hereinafter provided. And said Board shall file the bond of the applicant, approved by said Board, with said clerk of the Circuit Court for Cecil county, and the judgment of said Board of Liquor License Commissioners shall be final and conclusive upon any applicant, and any applicant to whom a license is refused shall not have the right to make a second application within six months. And the said Board may, in the exercise of their discretion, refuse to issue a license to any applicant, and when the License Commissioners shall have reason to believe that any licensee is conducting his business in an improper manner, or the place licensed is from local or other causes in the nature of a nuisance in such locality, or that the licensee has violated any of the provisions of the sub-title of this article, the License Commissioners shall have the power to suppress such license; and upon such suppression they shall file with the clerk of the Circuit Court for Cecil county, in writing, their reasons for suppression of such license.

Petition to be filed.

412. No license to sell spirituous or fermented liquors in Cecil county shall be granted to any hotel keeper who shall have complied with the provisions of this Act, until such applicant shall present to the clerk of Circuit Court for Cecil county the certificate of the Board of Liquor License Commissioners as provided in the preceding section, and shall in addition to the license fees required by the State pay to said

When license shall be granted.