

Exempt from jury duty. pelled to serve as judge or clerk for three years after the expiration of his term of service, and all persons so serving shall be exempt from jury duty during the term of their service and for one year thereafter. Any person so selected and notified to appear for examination who shall not appear before the board, as required, or shall refuse to serve, shall be fined not less than one hundred dollars nor more than three hundred dollars, unless it shall appear that he was not qualified for such service by reasons of ill health, infirmity or old age. It shall be the duty of the supervisors to notify the State's Attorney for Frederick county of the failure, refusal or neglect of any person to appear or to serve as aforesaid, and to require the State's Attorney to institute proceedings for such penalty at the next term of Court. The State's Attorney shall receive a fee of fifty dollars for every penalty recovered by him, to be paid out of the sum actually recovered, whether the proceedings for the recovery of such penalty shall be instituted of his own motion or at the instance of said supervisors.

Fee.

Notice of names of judges and clerks.

270 J. After the judges and clerks are appointed, the Board of Supervisors shall immediately and before the twenty-fifth day of February, in each year in which a regular election is to be held, give notice of the names of all such judges, and of the names of all such clerks, and in every case the residence and the precincts for which they are selected, by causing the same to be published once a week for one week in two or more newspapers in Frederick city, one of which papers, if possible, shall be of opposite political faith from that of a majority of such supervisors. Said board in appointing judges and clerks, and in the notice thereof, shall designate the persons intended by them to represent the political parties, respectively.

Complaints.

It shall be the duty of the said board to examine promptly into any complaints which may be preferred to them, in writing, against the fitness or qualifications of any person so appointed judge or clerk, and to remove any such judge or clerk whom, upon inquiry, they shall find to be unfit or incapable.

Vacancy.

The board shall forthwith appoint persons in the manner hereinbefore prescribed to fill all vacancies in the office of judge or clerk, and shall immediately make public the names of such persons so appointed by advertisement, as nearly as may be, as hereinbefore provided for the original appointment.

Record.

The record of appointments to fill vacancies shall be kept in the books hereinbefore prescribed in section 270 I, which
