

advance of payment by the property holders. In case of sale or negotiation of said certificates they shall be turned over to the treasurer of said town, who shall receipt for the same, collect the same and pay over the whole amount to the parties entitled to the same; all commission for such collection to be paid out of other funds.

SEC. 5. And whereas it has been represented that the sinking fund already created under the Act of eighteen hundred and eighty-eight, chapter ninety-four, will be sufficient to meet the bonds created by that Act at maturity, and the taxes required by said Act are not necessary beyond five cents on each one hundred dollars' worth of property to meet and pay the interest on said bonds, be it enacted, that hereafter the tax levied under the Act of 1888, chapter 94, shall not exceed five cents on the one hundred dollars on the assessable property within the limits of said town. Tax to be levied.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the Act of eighteen hundred and ninety-six, chapter three hundred and fifty two, authorizing a levy of five cents for a special sidewalk tax, be and the same is hereby repealed. Repeal

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage. Effective.

Approved March 14, 1898.
