

cause to be arranged alphabetically, and as near as possible, according to precincts, the names and late residences of all such deceased persons, and furnish a copy of said list to each member of the board of registry of such precincts for their guidance.

Notice of registration
and election

270 M. Said Board of Supervisors shall give ten days' notice of the time and place of registration and of revision thereof, and of election in each precinct of said city, by hand bills set up in the most public places in such precinct, and also by advertisement in two newspapers (one of which newspapers, if possible, shall be of opposite political faith from that of the majority of said Supervisors.) of general circulation therein, said board shall make all necessary rules and regulations not inconsistent with this Article, with reference to the registration of voters and the conduct of elections, and they shall have charge of, and make provisions for all elections, general or special, and for all others of every description, to be held in said city, or any part thereof, at any time; all questions shall be decided by a majority of the board unless otherwise expressly provided in this Article.

REGISTRATION.

Judge of election to be officer of
registration

270 N. Each judge of election appointed before the fifteenth day of February, as provided in section 270 G, shall also be an officer of registration in the precinct for which he shall be appointed, and the judges so appointed, when duly qualified, shall, for their respective precincts, collectively, constitute the Board of Registry thereof. Said officers of registration, and each of them, in addition to the power hereinafter conferred upon them as judges of election, shall have, during the respective times of the appointed sittings of said Board of Registry, authority to keep the peace and to preserve order and enforce obedience to their lawful commands at and around their places of registration; to keep the access to such place open and unobstructed, to prevent and suppress riots, tumult, violence and disorder, any violation of this Article, and all other improper practices at and around their places of registration, tending to intimidation or to the obstruction of their work; they may compel, by summons or attachment, the presence of witnesses before them for any purpose connected with the duties of their office, and may commit for trial any person committing at or around their place of registration any breach of the peace or other offence forbidden by this Article; they shall have the power to issue any of said summonses, attachments or commitments, when sitting, to the Sheriff