

son violating the provisions of this section, by allowing disorderly conduct on his premises.

SEC. 13. And be it enacted, That any person or persons, house, corporation, company or association of persons, his, her, their or its agents, officers, servants and employes, who shall without having obtained a license and complied with the preceding sections of this Act, sell, or offer to sell, barter or exchange or buy to sell or barter, or keep for sale or barter, or deliver within said town on order, any whiskey, wine, ale, porter, ambrosia, lager beer or any intoxicating drinks of any kind within the limits of said town shall, on conviction thereof, be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars, nor more than five hundred dollars, for each and every offense, and costs or imprisonment in the county jail or in the house of correction for not less than three months, nor more than eighteen months, or be both fined and imprisoned at the discretion of the Court or justice of the peace before whom the conviction may be had. Penalty.

SEC. 14. And be it enacted, That any person or persons, house, corporation, company or association of persons, his, her, their or its officers, agents, servants or employes having a license under the provisions of this Act, who shall hereafter be convicted of violating any one or more of the provisions of this Act, or the conditions of his, her, their or its license, shall be subjected to a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor more than three hundred dollars and costs; and for any second offense whereof he, she, they or it shall be convicted, his, her, their or its license shall be vacated and revoked, and he, she, they or it shall be subjected to a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, or to imprisonment in the county jail or in the house of correction for not less than sixty days nor more than twelve months, or to both fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the Court or justice of the peace before whom such conviction may be had. License revoked.

SEC. 15. And be it enacted, That if any minor shall falsely represent himself or herself or themselves to be of full age, and thereby induce any person holding a license under this Act, his, her, their or its agent or employes to sell him, her or them any intoxicating liquor of any kind, the said false representation or assertion shall be a misdemeanor, and on arrest and conviction before any justice of the peace, shall for each and every offense be fined not less than five dollars nor more than fifty dollars and costs, and be committed until said fine and costs are paid, with the right, nevertheless, to an appeal within Misdemeanor