

ten days to the Circuit Court, as given in section sixteen of this Act.

Prosecutions
for violations of preceding
sections.

SEC. 16. And be it enacted, That all prosecutions for violations of the preceding sections of this Act may be either upon presentment and indictment or by trial before a justice of the peace in and for Prince George's county, who shall have jurisdiction, original and concurrent, with the Circuit Court for Prince George's county; and any justice of the peace of said county shall have power to issue all process and to do all acts which may be necessary to the exercise of his jurisdiction, as now prescribed by law, and to commit all offenders till fines and costs are paid; and any person or persons who shall be brought before any justice of the peace, charged with and convicted of a violation of any provision or provisions of this Act, who shall feel aggrieved by the judgment of said justice, may pray an appeal to the Circuit Court for Prince George's county within ten days, and either party be entitled to a jury trial, and said justice shall then hold said person or persons so convicted and all witnesses summoned in the case under recognition to appear at the next regular jury term of the Circuit Court aforesaid, or commit them in default of bail, and transmit a copy of the warrant or judgment to said court, and said case shall be placed on the appeal docket of said court.

Sufficient evidence to convict anyone.

SEC. 17. And be it enacted, That it shall not be necessary in order to convict anyone violating the provisions of this Act to prove the actual sale and delivery of any spirituous or fermented liquors, but keeping liquors for sale or offering to sell, if proven, shall be sufficient to convict, and the possession at a place of business of a license issued by the United States Government to sell any spirituous or fermented liquors under the internal revenue laws, when proven by parole testimony or by a certificate of the collector of internal revenue, shall be prima facie evidence that such liquor is being sold in violation of this Act, and shall only be rebutted by positive testimony.

Duty of constables and bailiffs.

SEC. 18. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the resident constables and the bailiffs of the town of Laurel or any other officer resident in the town, to visit all places where it is suspected that any beer, whiskey, ambrosia, wines or any other spirituous or fermented liquors are sold or kept for sale in violation of this Act, and arrest all violators to be dealt with according to law; and constables shall report any violations of this Act to the Grand Jury, and the bailiffs of said town shall report to the Mayor and City Council of said town, under oath,
