

named, and for no other purpose or uses whatever. The City Council shall not have the power, by any other or subsequent ordinance or resolution, to enlarge any item contained in said ordinance after the same is duly passed. Nor shall the City Council, by any subsequent ordinance or otherwise, appropriate any sums of money to be used for the next ensuing fiscal year, for any of the purposes embraced in said ordinance of estimates. No appropriation provided for in said ordinance shall be diverted or used under any circumstances, for any other purpose than that named in said ordinance, nor shall the Comptroller draw any warrant for any of the items in said ordinance of estimates, unless he has received said amounts, and they are actually to the credit of the City Council and such department, sub-department, officers, commissions or boards. No temporary loan shall be authorized or made to pay any deficiency arising from a failure to realize sufficient income from revenue and taxation to meet the amounts provided for in said ordinance of estimates, but the City may temporarily borrow money for its use in anticipation of the receipts of taxes levied for any year. In case of any such deficiency, there shall be a pro rata abatement of all appropriations, except those for the payment of State taxes and the principal and interest of the City debt, and such amounts as are fixed by law and contained in said ordinance, and in case of any surplus arising in any fiscal year, by reason of an excess of income received from the estimated revenue over the expenditures for such year, the said surplus shall be passed to the Commissioners of Finance to be credited to the general sinking fund. Until the organization of the said Board of Estimates by the Mayor first elected under the provisions of this Article, as provided in section 25 of said Article, the Mayor, Comptroller, City Register and City Solicitor shall compose a Board to perform all the duties required of the Board of Estimates by the provisions of this Article.

37. Before any grant shall be made by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore of the franchise or right to use any street, avenue, alley or highway or the grant of the franchise or right for the use of any public property mentioned in section 7 of this Article, the proposed specific grant shall be
