

the Supervisors may order and direct such moderate and proper correction for any such offence as the nature of the case may require.

113. The Supervisors shall meet at the Almshouse on the first Monday of April, yearly, and appoint a Superintendent of said Almshouse, who shall receive a salary of one thousand six hundred dollars per annum, payable monthly. They shall require such Superintendent to enter into bond with sufficient security, payable to the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, in the penalty of five hundred dollars, for the faithful performance of the duties of his office.

114. In addition to such other duties as the Supervisors may prescribe, the Superintendent shall keep a regular list of all poor, beggars, vagrants, vagabonds and offenders who shall be committed to said Almshouse, and also regular accounts, in writing, of all materials and other things which may come to his hands, and of all expenses and charges attending their maintenance and support, and of all moneys received by him for the sale of the produce of their labor, and otherwise, as Superintendent, and shall lay the same before the Supervisors annually and whenever required.

115. The Supervisors may appoint a Purveyor of Provisions to said Almshouse, and fix his salary at a sum not to exceed fifteen hundred dollars per annum. It shall be the duty of said Purveyor to provide and furnish provisions to said Almshouse under the direction of said Supervisors, to whom he shall annually return a statement or account of his receipts and expenditures, to be examined and passed at their discretion.

116. The Supervisors shall require the said Purveyor to give bond and security to be approved by them, and in such penalty as they shall direct, conditioned for the faithful performance of the trusts reposed in him, and upon failure to comply with the conditions thereof, they may direct said bonds to be put in suit, and any sum of money recovered in such suits shall be applied to the use of said Almshouse.
