

117. None of the foregoing provisions in sections 104 to 116 inclusive, shall apply to offenders, juvenile or adult.

118. The Visitors to the Jail shall be the second sub-department of Charities and Corrections, and the head of this sub-department shall be a board consisting of nine persons, appointed by the Mayor in the manner prescribed in section 25 of this Article, who shall hold their offices as therein provided. They shall serve without pay. One of their number shall be designated by the Mayor, who shall be President of said Visitors, and the said Visitors shall elect from their number a Secretary. The Visitors to the Jail shall have charge and control, supervision and regulation, of the Baltimore City Jail and all reformatory, criminal and penal institutions belonging to the City. They shall also have supervision over those persons committed to the criminal, penal and reformatory institutions with which the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore have contracts. The Visitors to the Jail shall have the power to pass rules and regulations for their own government and for the government of the Baltimore City Jail and the aforesaid institutions belonging to the City, not inconsistent with this Article, and shall perform such other duties as may be required of them by ordinances not inconsistent with this Article.

119. The said Visitors shall meet on the first Tuesday of every month or at such other times as they may direct ; special meetings may be called at any time by the President, or any two members, on giving three days' notice in writing to the members.

120. The said Visitors shall have full power and authority, as often as they may deem it necessary, to visit the jail and the prisoners confined therein ; to make by-laws for the internal police and good government thereof, and for the preservation of the buildings and other property.

121. The said Visitors shall regulate and provide the diet of the prisoners, procure necessary bedding and clothing for their use ; make such repairs, alterations and improvements in and about the jail as they may deem necessary, and provide medicine and attendance for such of the prisoners as are sick.
