

122. All persons confined in Baltimore City Jail, under sentence of the Criminal Court of Baltimore, for offences punishable by confinement therein, or committed by any Judge, Court, Justice of the Peace, or other lawful authority having jurisdiction to commit such person to said jail, either as a punishment for the violation of any law or ordinance, or under or by virtue of any law or ordinance, or for failure to pay any fine or costs imposed upon such person by any such Judge, Court, Justice of the Peace or other lawful authority, shall be kept by the Visitors to the Jail at hard labor in some useful employment. The said Visitors to the Jail shall frame such regulations as shall be necessary to the industry, quiet and discipline of such persons, and shall have them kept separate from persons in confinement awaiting trial, or for other causes.

123. The said Visitors shall also require all vagrants confined in said jail to work and labor about the premises.

124. The said Visitors may, with their consent, employ other persons confined therein in such work and labor in and about the premises as may be consistent with their safe-keeping, and shall keep an account of the earnings of such persons, and shall, upon their discharge, allow them two-thirds of the net proceeds thereof, to be ascertained by the Visitors.

125. The said Visitors shall keep regular books of accounts, in which the whole expenses of the jail, whether for supplies, salaries of officers, repairs or incidentals, shall be distinctly stated.

126. The said Visitors shall appoint a fit person as Warden of the Baltimore City Jail. They shall allow the said Warden and his assistants and other employees and servants such compensation as in their judgment is proper, not to exceed in the aggregate the amount appropriated by ordinance. The said Visitors shall at their will and pleasure remove the said Warden.

127. It shall be the duty of the Warden of the Baltimore City Jail to take charge of the prison and prisoners therein, and exercise, during his continuance in office, the same powers, and
