

155. Each member of the said Court shall receive fifty dollars, annually, for the service required in the three preceding sections ; and the City Register, the sum of three hundred dollars for the services therein required of him ; the said sums to be paid by the Treasurer on the warrant of the State Comptroller in pursuance of Article 81, section 93, of the Code of Public General Laws.

156. Whenever any person shall make application for an allowance or deduction on account of the sale, transfer, alienation, loss or removal of any property, or the collection or payment of any public or private security for money, the said Court shall interrogate him on oath in reference thereto, and the disposal of the same, and especially inquire of him to whom the same has been sold or transferred, and the amount of the purchase money or the money collected, and how the same has been invested.

157. The said Court shall also interrogate the said person on oath in reference to any acquisitions or investments made by him, and not already assessed, and the amount of all such acquisitions and investments shall be added to his assessable property, and if he refuses to answer, no allowance or deduction shall be made ; they shall also have power to summon before them any person whom they may know or be credibly informed has acquired new property, or whose account of taxable property may, in their judgment, require revision and correction, and examine such person on oath touching the same ; and any person so summoned, and refusing to appear, and any person refusing to be sworn, or to answer touching said amount or touching his or her property, shall be liable to prosecution therefor, and, upon conviction, shall be fined not exceeding fifty dollars for each offense, to be collected as other fines are collected.

158. Any person who shall remove to the City of Baltimore from any County or City in which his property has been assessed, and whose personal property has not been assessed in the City of Baltimore, or any person whose property or some part thereof, has not been assessed, shall, when required by said
