

Delivery of ballots to judges of election.

of one hundred voters shown by the last preceding registration in said precinct, and shall cause each package to be sealed and clearly marked on the outside of its wrapper with the name of precinct or polling place for which it is intended, and the number of ballots enclosed. One of said two packages shall be delivered to the judges of election with the ballot boxes, poll books, blanks and stationery, as provided in section 270 v v of this Article, and the other package of tickets, one for every precinct, shall be retained in their possession by said Board of Supervisors of Elections, and it shall be the duty of the said Supervisors of Elections to have them on the day of election within said polling places, respectively, in their charge, or that of an officer designated by them, and to supply to any judges of election, who shall then make requisition therefor in writing, stating their first supply of ballots has been exhausted, or that for any cause the second set is needed. Said Supervisors of Elections shall keep a record of all such second sets of ballots so delivered by them to the judges of election, and they shall cause all packages sent so delivered to the judges of election to be destroyed within ten days thereafter, unless the destruction thereof be stayed by order of Court pending a contest. The Board of Supervisors shall keep a record of the number of all ballots printed for each polling place in said city, and shall preserve the same for at least six months after the election for which it was made.

ELECTIONS.

Mode of delivery of ballots, ballot boxes, etc., at polling places.

270 v v. The Supervisors of Elections of Frederick City shall, not more than three days and not less than one day prior to every election, make up into sealed packages for each precinct the two registers for said precinct, together with the cards of instruction and the key of the ballot box for such precinct having first placed in the ballot box one of the sealed packages of ballots for said precincts, the specimen ballots, the two poll books and all blanks, indelible pencils and stationery required for such elections, and shall deliver the said packages and ballot boxes, properly addressed, to the judges of election of the respective precincts at or before the opening of the polls on the day of election. The several boards of Supervisors of Elections shall keep a record of the time when such deliveries are made by them and of the particulars thereof.

Judges of election to keep the peace.

270 w w. The judges of election, and each of them, shall have authority to keep the peace, and to cause any person to be arrested for any breach of the peace, or for any breach of the election laws, or any interference with the progress of an
