

be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof, be fined by the court before which such conviction is had, for every violation, the sum of one hundred dollars and costs, and stand committed until such fine and costs be paid. The owner or owners of any such house or building used as a sweat-shop or factory where four or more persons are employed as garment workers, on other than the first floor of such house or building, shall provide fire-escapes for the same; and if any owner or owners of any house or building so used, fail to make or provide a fire-escape, such owner or owners shall pay a fine of two hundred dollars, to be recovered as other fines in this State, or imprisonment in the City Jail for sixty days, or both fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

CARRIAGES AND HORSES.

281. The Board of Police Commissioners of the City of Baltimore shall determine and fix the rate of fare to be charged by the owners of hackney carriages in said City; and every owner of a hackney carriage who shall have obtained a license therefor, as required by the ordinances of the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, shall be authorized and entitled, during the time in such license specified, to ask, charge and receive, as a compensation from every person using the same, the rates of fare and compensation, and hire prescribed by the said Board of Police Commissioners, and no more; provided, that the provisions of this section shall not apply to the owners of hackney carriages who conduct their business exclusively at their respective stables.

282. The owner of every licensed hackney carriage, other than those excepted in the preceding section, before he shall be entitled to charge, ask or receive any hire or compensation for the use thereof, shall cause the number of such carriage, as stated in his license, in plain and easily legible figures, at least two inches in length, to be painted or otherwise delineated in conspicuous places on each side of such carriage, both within and without, and shall also keep in at least two conspicuous positions in the interior of such carriage a copy of the rates of fare or charges prescribed by the Board of Police Commission-
