

of applying for a license for the same, as required by the present or any future ordinances of the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, signify in writing such intention, and thereupon a special license may and shall be granted to such proprietors by the Comptroller or other proper officer of said City; and for every special license thus granted there shall be paid such sum as is now or shall hereafter become payable for other hackney carriages by the present or future ordinances of said City.

286. No hackney carriages which shall be thus especially licensed shall make use of or go upon or stand or wait for employment at any of the public stands designated by or under the present or any future ordinances of the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, or at any place in said City, except the premises of the owner thereof, under a penalty of twenty dollars for every such offence; one-half to be paid to the informer, to be recovered against either the owner or driver thereof, as fines of a like amount are now recovered.

287. Each and every proprietor of hackney carriages shall, at the time when he applies for a special license, or any renewal thereof, furnish the Comptroller or other proper officer of the City of Baltimore with a correct statement of the number of hackney carriages used by him; and such owner, whenever he shall increase the number of such hackney carriages, shall report such increase to the Comptroller or other proper officer of said City; and every person violating any of the provisions of this section shall forfeit his license, and be liable to a penalty of ten dollars.

288. All penalties which shall be incurred under section 283 of this sub-division of this Article, or for the breach of any of its provisions, may be recovered by warrant issued in the name of the State, in the same manner as debts within said City are recoverable, with the right of appeal to the Baltimore City Court.

289. On the trial of such appeal, the party of whom the penalty is claimed shall be entitled to a jury trial; but there shall be no stay of execution of any judgment appealed from, unless
