

sufficient securities; the sufficiency of which securities shall be certified to by the Judge of each of said courts, and approved by the Comptroller of the State as herein directed.

358. When the sufficiency of the securities in each of said bonds is certified to by the judges of the several courts, the bonds shall be immediately recorded among the proceedings of the court to which the said clerk belongs, and then sent to the Comptroller for his approval; and if the Comptroller shall approve said bonds and securities he shall certify the same to the judges of said several courts, and such certificates shall be recorded in such respective courts.

359. Each of said clerks shall every second year renew his said bond in the same penalty, and with securities to be certified and approved as hereinbefore directed.

360. If any one of the clerks of said courts shall fail to give bond as hereinbefore directed, within thirty days after he has received his commission, or shall fail to give a new bond within thirty days after the expiration of two years from the date of the bond previously given, it shall be regarded as a misdemeanor in office, and upon conviction thereof he shall be removed.

361. No deputy or assistant of a clerk shall become a surety on his official bond.

362. The Clerks of the Superior Court of Baltimore City, of the Common Pleas, and Baltimore City Court are each authorized and required to prepare an index of all judgments rendered in the courts aforesaid; and they shall severally, on each day after the adjournment of court, enter in a book to be provided for that purpose, an index of each judgment rendered in the court whereof he is clerk; and they are authorized severally to charge and receive ten cents for each judgment indexed as aforesaid; said fee to be taxed in the bill of costs of each case in which judgment is entered—to be collected as other fees are now collected.
