

ted to vote at such primary election, or shall fraudulently make, sign, publish or deliver any false tally or return of the result of any such primary election, or any certificate of the result of a primary election, knowing the same to be false, he shall, on conviction thereof, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and be punished by a fine of not more than three hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in jail for not more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

405. If any person, whether an officer of such primary election or not, shall knowingly and fraudulently put any ballot, or other paper, having the semblance of a ballot, into any ballot box being used, or to be used for receiving the votes at any such primary election, with intent to affect the result of such primary election, during such primary election, and in good faith received as such, or if any person shall, before or during the canvass of ballots at any such primary election, in any manner change, substitute or alter any ballot taken from the ballot box, then being canvassed or about to be canvassed, or shall remove any ballot or semblance thereof from, or add any ballot or semblance thereof to, the ballot taken from such ballot box, and then being canvassed, he shall, on conviction thereof, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine of not more than three hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in jail for not more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

406. If any oath or affirmation is administered by the judges or other officers of any primary election, to any person or persons, for the purpose of determining the right of such persons, or of any other person, to vote at such primary election, and any person taking such oath shall wilfully and purposely swear falsely in regard to any matter so inquired of, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not more than three hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in jail for not more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.