

the political association or party under whose authority the election is called.

410. It shall be the duty of the executive committee of the managing convention of the political association under whose authority such election is called, to furnish to the Board of Police of said City, a ballot-box for each ward, containing a poll book, a printed copy of this law, and of the resolutions and rules adopted by said managing convention for the conduct of the election, and a copy of the registration lists of the ward, duly certified by the Clerk of the Superior Court; the said clerk being required to furnish such certified copies to any such executive committee upon demand, and upon the payment of the usual fees; and it shall be the duty of the said Board of Police to cause the said ballot-boxes to be delivered immediately before the opening of such election, to the judges of election of each ward, at the respective polling places; before any ballot shall be received, the ballot-boxes shall be inspected by the judges of election in the presence of any persons who may choose to attend, and placed in a conspicuous position, in full view of persons outside the polling place, and shall not be moved nor unlocked until after the election is over and the votes are to be counted.

411. The said judges of elections shall have power to examine under oath, to be administered by them, any person offering to vote at any such election, touching his qualifications and right to vote; but before such examination it shall be their duty to take from him the ballot which he shall tender, and in case of the rejection of the said ballot they shall not put said ballot in the ballot-box, but preserve it and all other rejected ballots, and return them with the names and residences of the persons offering them, endorsed on the back thereof, in a sealed package, to the president of the managing convention, to be kept by him in the same manner as legal ballots are hereinafter required to be kept.

412. Every voter shall deliver to the judge or judges of election of the ward in which he offers to vote a ballot on which shall be written or printed the name or names of the person or