

the provisions of this sub-division of this Article, of which he may have personal knowledge, to have been committed at such election, or to furnish to said Grand Jury, before their adjournment, his or their certificate, signed by him, and under oath made and certified before a Justice of the Peace of said City, that he did not know and had no reason to believe that any such offences had been committed at such election, which certificate shall be returned by the Grand Jury to the said court, and preserved and recorded by the clerk thereof.

421. The return judges at any such election shall each receive five dollars per diem, and the other judges and clerks of election, two dollars and a-half per diem, for their respective services, to be paid by and recoverable from the members of the executive committee of the managing convention of the political association under whose authority the election was called.

422. If at any election held under the terms of this sub-division of this Article, any person knowingly personates any voter, or votes in the name of any other person, whether living, dead or fictitious, or votes more than once at the same election for any candidate for the same office, or votes without having a lawful right to vote, or unlawfully prevents any qualified voter from freely exercising his right to vote, or interferes in any manner with any judge or clerk of such election in the discharge of his duties, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and punished, upon conviction, by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars, or by imprisonment for not more than thirty days.

423. If any judge or clerk of election shall fraudulently make any false certificate of the result of such election, or withhold, conceal or destroy any such certificate of any election returns, tally lists or poll book, or take unlawfully from the custody of the judges of election, or destroy any ballot-box, or withdraw therefrom illegally any ballot or ballots which have been deposited therein, or attempt or commit any violence against any person having lawful charge of the same, or against any judge or clerk of election in the discharge of his duty as
