

provided, on the Thursday preceding the fourth Monday of each term, and thereafter so long as a jury may be required for any of said courts, from three weeks to three weeks during each term of each of the said courts which may require the attendance of a jury; at such meetings the said Judges, or a majority of them, shall cause the names of those who have served on any of the regular panels of the aforesaid courts since the making of the list of qualified jurors as aforesaid to be stricken from said list; and the persons whose names are so stricken from said list shall not be liable to serve again as jurors for two years, accounting from the beginning of the term for which their names were so entered on the list of qualified jurors; the said Judges, or a majority of them, shall then add to said list of qualified jurors such qualified persons as shall suffice to make up the number of seven hundred and fifty qualified persons, or thereabouts. From the said whole number the jurors to serve for three weeks from the ensuing Monday shall then be drawn for the said courts, and their names be recorded in the said jury books in the manner hereinbefore provided by this subdivision of this Article, under the superintendence of one or more of said Judges. And if, at the time of any drawing, juries shall not be required for all of said courts, then it shall not be necessary to draw panels for the court not requiring them, but jurors shall be drawn for such courts only as may need them, in the manner hereinbefore provided in this Article relating to jurors, so far as concerns the courts requiring such juries; and besides summoning said panels for the said courts, the Sheriff shall also summon at the same time such number of reserves as he may be required, by the Judges, or a majority of them, as provided by section 608; and said reserves shall also be liable to service as in said section mentioned.

613. If it should happen that the said lists of persons competent to act as jurors, other than the regular panels as aforesaid, should at any time be exhausted as talesmen, it shall also be competent for the Sheriff to summon as talesmen any of the regular panels in any of the other of said courts in Baltimore City who may be at the time of such summons not engaged as part of any special panel in any of the said courts; but it is herein provided that whenever any part of the regular panel
