

tallies shall also be signed by the election clerks and the judges of election, and each shall be enclosed in an envelope securely signed and sealed as aforesaid, one which shall be addressed to the Board of Supervisors of Elections, and the other to the Mayor of said city. On the outside of every envelope shall be endorsed the statement that it contains the votes cast on the tallies, and for what precinct of said city.

270 К К К. The "spoiled" and "not voted" ballots, as defined in Section 270 Е Е Е shall be enclosed in a package to themselves and endorsed "spoiled and not voted;" the "rejected" and "defective ballots," as defined in said section and in Section 270 Н Н Н shall be enclosed in a package to themselves, and endorsed "rejected and defective." The poll books and the ballots cast and counted, as well as the two before mentioned packages of "spoiled," "not voted," "rejected" and "defective" ballots, shall be placed in the ballot box, and the ballot box shall then be locked and the key removed, whereupon the judges of election shall all write their names upon a strip of paper of sufficient length for the following purposes. Said strip of paper shall then be pasted over the keyhole of said ballot box and over the slit in the lid, in such manner that the signature shall extend across the place of the opening of the lid, and so that when the box is opened it will tear the paper and destroy the signatures, and so that when the key is inserted in the keyhole it will tear the paper so pasted over the keyhole. Such paper shall be securely fastened to the box with sealing wax or some other adhesive material.

270 L L L. Thereupon, after the proceedings set forth in the preceding section in each precinct, one of the judges, who is also an officer of registration, who shall be designated beforehand by the Supervisors of Elections, shall take charge of the ballot box and its contents so enclosed, and the other judge, who is also an officer of registration, shall receive and hold the key thereof, and the package of unused ballots sealed up by said judges. Each of said two judges shall take into his possession one of the registers, and also one of the statements of the votes cast, sealed up in its envelope, as aforesaid, and also one of the tally-sheets, sealed up in an envelope, as aforesaid, and the meeting of the judges and clerks shall then be dissolved. Before twelve o'clock noon of the second day after said election, the two judges so having custody thereof shall deliver said ballot boxes, keys, packages of unused ballots, registers, statements of votes cast and tally sheets to the proper officers, as hereinbefore prescribed, and shall take receipts for
