

the same by the plaintiff or his attorney in person, or in writing accompanied with the cause of action in said case; nor an execution, except upon the order, in person or in writing, of the plaintiff or his attorney; and if any Justice of the Peace for said City shall issue a summons or execution contrary hereto, or if any constable shall serve the same knowingly, such justice or constable shall be liable to indictment in the Criminal Court of Baltimore, and on conviction shall be disqualified from holding his office.

627. Every writ of replevin or summons issued by said Justice shall be made returnable before the same or any Justice of the Peace of the ward in which the defendant may reside, and the defendant shall have his election to have his case tried before the Justice who issued the writ of replevin or summons, or before the Justice of the ward in which he resides.

628. The Justices of said City when called out of their offices on business not judicial, may receive such compensation for their services, in addition to their fees of office, as the party requiring their services may allow them.

629. Each of the Justices of the Peace appointed for any legislative district shall keep his office within the limits of the legislative district for which he may have been appointed, except as provided in the succeeding section.

630. It shall be the duty of the Governor, after the appointments of the Justices of the Peace, provided for in section 623, to select from the Justices of the Peace so appointed, a Justice of the Peace to sit at each station house in the City of Baltimore, and in addition, one Justice of the Peace to act at such times and places as is hereinafter provided for; each Justice so selected, shall keep his office at the station house for which he was appointed, and shall attend at such station house from nine o'clock A. M. until twelve o'clock M., in every day in the week, except Sunday, and from two o'clock P. M. until four o'clock P. M., in every day, except Sunday; and on every Sunday in each year, shall attend at the station house for which he was appointed, from nine o'clock A. M. until eleven o'clock A. M.; and at each of said respective sittings, hereinbefore provided for,
