

633. In all criminal prosecutions or proceedings which, under the provisions of the preceding section, may be heard, tried and determined before a Justice of the Peace sitting at a station house in the City of Baltimore, it shall be the duty of such Justice of the Peace before whom such case is tried, in the event of the conviction of the accused at the said trial, to impose upon the said accused so convicted, the fine, or the fine and punishment prescribed in case of such conviction by the Act of Assembly of this State, or by the ordinance of the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, for the violation of which the accused was so tried. Any person sentenced to the payment of any fine, and to the payment of the costs of his prosecution, who shall not forthwith pay the said fine and the costs of said prosecution, shall be committed by such Justice of the Peace to the jail of Baltimore City until such fine and costs are paid, or until the said person shall be discharged from such jail by due course of law.

634. When a person charged with any offence referred to in this sub-division of this Article, or the State's Attorney, shall pray a jury trial, the Justice of the Peace shall, in addition to his duties prescribed in section 632, endorse upon said commitment or recognizance the names and residences of the witnesses for the prosecution; and such commitment or recognizance so endorsed shall be returned forthwith to the Clerk of the said Criminal Court of Baltimore.

635. The Justice of the Peace, so selected to sit at any station house, may be changed from time to time by the Governor, at his discretion, and any other Justice of the Peace may be selected by the Governor to perform the said duties at said station house.

636. Each Justice of the Peace selected to sit at a station house in the City of Baltimore shall receive the sum of one hundred and seventy-five dollars per month, or a proportionable part thereof, so long as he shall continue to act at a station
